

CAN YOU PAY FOR CHILD CARE?

Your Provider's Charges:

How much does it cost per hour? _____

How much does it cost per day? _____

(Divide the weekly rate by five to figure out the daily rate)

How much does it cost per week? _____

Are there transportation fees? _____

(Not paid for by Child Care Assistance)

Do they charge for food? _____

(Not paid for by Child Care Assistance)

Is there a registration fee? _____

(Child Care Assistance will pay up to $50.00 per child two times a year.)

Are there late fees? _____

(Not paid for by Child Care Assistance)

Do they charge for absent days? _____

(Child Care Assistance may pay for these)

Do they go on vacation?

(Child Care Assistance may pay for this)

Are there activity for field trip charges? _____

(Not paid for by Child Care Assistance)

How much? _____

How much? _____

How much? _____

How much? _____

How much? _____

How much? _____

Your Assistance:

Do you get Child Care Assistance? _____

What is your Co-pay? _____

How much will Child Care Assistance pay per day? _____

(Less than 5 days per week)

How much will Child Care Assistance pay per hour? _____

(Less than 5 days per week)

How much will Child Care Assistance pay per week? _____

(5 days a week full-time)

Do the Math:

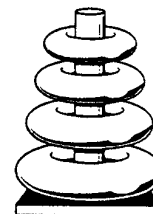

Cost per day, hour or week _____

Additional fees _____

Maximum amount paid by Child Care Assistance _____

Co-pay _____

How much is left to pay _____

_____ - _____ + _____ = _____
Cost & Fees Child Care Assistance Co-pay What you must pay

REMEMBER: Child Care Assistance does not pay for transportation fees, food costs, activity fees, or late fees. These are your responsibility.

Prepared by the System for Change for Early Childhood Care and Education, Child Care Kits Subcommittee with funding from the McKnight Foundation. do not revise without permission. June 1998.